

FOCUS/FOKUS

Mapping Bangladesh Studies

Edited by IFTEKHAR IQBAL & SADIA BAJWA

IFTEKHAR IQBAL, State of Bangladesh Studies: An Exploration in Historical Literature	5
WILLEM VAN SCHENDEL, Blind Spots and Biases in Bangladesh Studies	29
NEILESH BOSE, Periodisation and the Twentieth Century: Grappling with the Pre-Histories of Bangladesh	35
ELORA SHEHABUDDIN, Feminism and Nationalism in Cold War East Pakistan	49
ANNU JALAI, Bengali 'Bihari' Muharram: The Identitarian Trajectories of a Community	69
MAX STILLE, Islamic Non-Friday Sermons in Bangladesh	94
EVA GERHARZ, What is in a Name? Indigenous Identity and the Politics of Denial in Bangladesh	115

FORUM

MERLE GRONEWEG, 'Muslims' after Partition and 9/11: The Construction of a 'Religious Minority' and its Challenges to 'Secularism' in India and Western Europe	138
JANAKI NAIR, "The City is History": New Indian Urbanism and the Terrain of the Law	165
DHANYA FEE KOSCHORRECK, Ravidassia – Weder Sikh noch Hindu? Aushandlung und Festigung von Identität innerhalb einer global vernetzten (religiösen) Gemeinschaft	200
MICHAEL DUSCHE, Women's Rights in India: Hierarchical Ethics vs. Egalitarian Morality	228

REVIEW ESSAY/FORSCHUNGSBERICHT

CORINNA R. UNGER, India's Green Revolution: Towards a New Historical Perspective	254
SUSHMITA NATH, Changing Trajectories of Indian Political Thought	271
SARAH HOLZ, Reforming Tradition and Traditions of Reform in Muslim South Asia	305
NITIN SINHA, 'Opinion' and 'Violence': Whiteness, Empire and State-Formation in Colonial India	322
STEPHAN BEUTNER, Maoisten in Indien: Neue Ansätze und Einsichten?	352